Business executive who provided C suite level consulting services to companies in need of transition, who has also worked as a Partner at EY, Chief Operating Officer, and Chief Financial Officer.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

President, Anthony J. Crisafio, P.C., 1994 – 2021

- Provided C suite level consulting services primarily in operations, finance and accounting to clients, primarily in turnaround situations. Served as a part time Chief Financial Officer for privately held and NASDAQ-listed companies whose accounting departments needed transitioning.

Board Member, PDC Energy, Inc., 2006 – 2021

- The Company was originally a sponsor of oil and gas partnerships and transitioned into an E&P operator headquartered in Denver, Co. I joined the board after a financial restatement at the parent company level, resulted in the Company being delinquent by several hundred filings with the SEC for its oil and gas sponsored partnerships.

Primary Committee Memberships:

Audit Committee: Member (2006 – 2012, 2014 – 2021), Chair (2008 – 2012, 2017 – 2021)

Partnership Committee: Chair & Member (2008 – 2012 and 2014 - 2019)

Compensation Committee: Member (2006 – 2016)

Board Member, ALGI, Inc., 2004 – 2005

- The Company produced approximately 50% of the postal lockers used by the US Postal Service. The Company lost the contract to produce those lockers as I was joining the board.

Committee Membership

Audit Committee: Chair (2004 – 2005)

Restructuring Committee: Advisor (2004 – 2005)

Advisory Board Membership positions for several privately owned companies

Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer and Director, Cinema World, Inc., 1989 – 1993

- The Company was the then eighteenth largest theater circuit in the United States, operating in twenty-three cities in three states. Developed plans that reduced SG&A by 50%, improved cash flow from operations to positive and the Company was sold for 50% more than the purchase price.

Partner, Ernst & Young, 1975 – 1989

- Partner in the Assurance group (1986 – 1989)
